

YOUR VOICE MATTERS:

open call for school fellowships on youth participation in school management

If you are a student between 13 and 15 years old and you are willing to actively participate in the school management at your school, the BePart project invites you to register in this school fellowship to take part and have the decision-making power in issues that affects you in your school.

How can I participate? What will be my responsibilities?

- You will need to implement two Models of Youth Participation selected from the MYP Handbook during the school year 2021/2021.
- You will have to work directly with teacher [teacher's name] and with other seven colleagues and together, as group work, will have a voice in the process of decision-making and express your views on the promotion and improvements of issues that concern all students, such as:
 - The academic school project, its goals and procedures;
 - The establishment of policies and rules that organize the school functioning;
 - School performance evaluation;
 - School's conflicts resolution strategies;
- For that, the group work (8 students) will meet regularly with the school management team to receive the demands or requests of the classes or to discuss the functioning and management of the school.

What will I benefit from this?

You will have the opportunity to:

- Have power in the decision-making of issues that affects you in your school;
- Contribute to a European project focused on Youth-led Participation;
- Work together with the teachers mentioned above;
- Mobility for 3 to 5 days in one of the other countries to share your experience with other students;
- Share your experience with other students;

How do I join?
